C. 35.

An ACT for Amending the Road from Sacred Gate, in the Parish of Thorngumbald, to Pattrington Creek, or Haven, and from the Guide Post in Winestead to Frodingham Gate, in or near Widow Branton's Farm, in the County of York; and for Scouring and Cleansing the said Creek or Haven.

 Hereas the Road leading from Sacred Gate, in the Parish of Preamble, as to the Roads; Thorngumbald, in Holderness, in the County of York, to Pattrington Haven, through Thorngumbald, Rybill, Keyingham, Ottringham, Winestead, and Pattrington, in Holderness aforeaid, being about Ten Miles in Length; and also the Road branching out of the same, in Winestead aforeaid, and leading from thence through Winestead Lanes to a Gate called Frodingham Gate, near Widow Branton's Farm, in the Lordship of Frodingham, Holderness aforeaid, being about Two Miles in Length; are, from the nature of the Soil, and by reason of the many heavy Carriages passing through the same, become so deep and ruinous, that they are in many parts thereof utterly impassable in the Winter Season for Waggons, Carts, and Wheel Carriages; and are very dangerous and troublesome for laden Horses, and Travellers on Horseback, who have Occasion to pass to and from and upon the same:

And whereas there is a Creek or Chancel navigable for Keels, Sloops, and to the boats, and other Vessels, between the River Humber and the Town of Pat- Haven.

trington aforesaid, and which is called or known by the Name of Patricton Haven, and which was formerly of great Benefit and Advantage for the Carriage, and Conveyance by Water, of Corn and Grain, and other Goods, Wares, and Commodities, to and from the Town of Kingston upon Hull and Holderness aforesaid; but the same has of late Years been so worn and choaked up with Ooze, Mud, Soil, and other Rubbish, as that the Navigation of the same is thereby greatly obstructed, and in a great measure prevented, and rendered of little or no Use to the Country:

And whereas the repairing the said Roads, and cleansing the said Creek and Haven, and making them navigable, passable, and keeping the same respectively in good Order and Repair, would tend greatly to Facilitating and Promoting of Trade and Commerce, and to the Encouragement of Husbandry and Tillage, and be for the general Benefit and Advantage of the Country; But as these Ends cannot be attained or accomplished by the ordinary Course of Law, or without the Aid, Assistance, or Authority, of Parliament;

May it therefore please Your MAJESTY,

Trustees.
